

Integrity

In most cases the true sense of personal integrity have been lost through the cracks of life that have been open by the maladjusted human being, as all his rights for true inner expression have been denied. Here we come to the crossroads when we most assert our selves of the importance of Integrity in a human life. There are out there some many preachers of truth that have no idea of the meaning of integrity. much less are willing to be examples to that virtue to others. To be at peace in one heart, when all deeds that have been done in the present moment are untouched by lies, that is living in pure integrity.

There are so many masks that the human being is willing to use to overcome the obstacles that his own negligence about true expression has push him into, and it is the reason why the world today is rule by the Lord of Lies. The Pure Heart is waiting for all of us if we are to be assertive and take action to transform our illusion into Reality. Integrity is the main ingredient to become a transparent being that can transcend the self impose limitations and act as spiritual warrior in this life. I don't care how many hours you can meditate, because I assure you that integrity is not develop that way. Is only in the heat of the moment when you are face with choices that are presented to you and the opportunity to be deceitful or truthful is in front of you, that integrity is build in your awareness and a new hidden force of your very soul begins to transform your life.

What we are, is just the sum total of all our experiences that have build a mask that cover our true identity. It is only how we perceive from now own, our own attitudes toward the ignorant behaviors of our life that the transforming power of life can create a new story from where you can create truly Heaven on Earth. - We all have our agendas that are hidden to bestow an opportunistic goal to achieve what we want, many times without thinking about others. Is sad that humans has lost touch with their true innocence that manifest as children and become these shadows that can't be authentic and just become followers of the so call success in life at all cost.

How we talk is the most important part to build our integrity in this life. Are our words filled with lies or truth? Are we only using our word to obtain what we want at all cost or are we using our words in integrity to communicate our true feelings and thoughts? Are we being deceitful and create scenarios in which we can manipulate others into doing our will, or are we truly expressions of compassion that can't hold the thought of manipulating another for our personal gain? It is true spirituality what I'm transmitting here, as is the essence of your heart the one that is being placed upon the altar of Truth. Where Truth is there you truly come to find God. It is not about experiences, visions, healings, angels, masters and other phenomena that many relate to being spiritual. It is the transcendental manifestation of your pure intentions in every single moment that allow you to grow as a human being and not only transform your world, but those of others around you. That is the true purpose placed in your heart by our Father God.

That was what Jesus did in his short life. He was the example of pure integrity for us, yet the evil ones diverted our attention towards other parts of his life, when the teaching of integrity is the most important part of not only what he taught, but the way he lived his life. Are we the beggars of Satan, referring also to the Ego and his deceitful strategies to control us, or are we friends of Jesus the immaculate manifestation of integrity and example of true communion with the real true God. "You can not serve two masters Jesus said". So for those that have been with me so far, this is the opportunity to raise your heart and make a choice for good in the way you live your life. Heaven is only attained through real integrity, not by meditation, prayer or learning of Holy Scriptures alone. As we present our selves to others the Universe see us in return. Aren't we fully connected and one with Universe that is observing us at the same time, as we are pure perfect Souls created to the image of God, bathe in pure divine Consciousness witnessing everything that is in the Omnipresence of our Father Divine? Aren't we lying in the face of God our Divine Father that Love us so much, when we are not presenting our being in integrity to others?

There is much to learn as integrity is gain by loosing ones fake self. So the sum total of the many things you have learn so far, are indeed the tools that will allow to become a being of pure integrity, yet is the direct approach that you must take not to lose your way. Open your spiritual eyes and behold that indeed paradise was never lost as Satan has make us believe with his great illusion and web of lies and it can be gain through the immaculate eyes of integrity that will reveal the true presence and form of God.

God bless you now and always.
